The following question of law was submitted to the Bishop. An appeal had been taken from the decision of Jno. R. Deering, Presiding Elder of the Shelbyville District. "The discipline provides that all ministers residing in the bounds of a district are members of the said District Conference. It also seems to indicate that a minister belonging to an Annual Conference is a member of the District Conference where his name appears in the list of appointments. Question—Is a member of an Annual Conference also a member of the District Conference where his name appears in the list of appointments, or is he a member of the District Conference where he lives, outside the boundary of his home Annual Conference?"

(Signed) J. W. SIMPSON.

"The answer to this question seems to depend upon the meaning of the first clause of paragraph 69, to-wit: 'The District Conference shall be composed of all preachers in the district.' The Presiding Elder rules that the appearance of a preacher's name by Episcopal authority in the list of Conference appointments, in any district, is in itself, decisive of the question of the preachers membership. It makes him a member of the district where his name appears." (Signed) JNO. R. DEERING.

The Bishop affirmed the Presiding Elder's decision.

Memoirs.

REV. JAMES CHRISTOPHER MINOR.

REV. JAMES CHRISTOPHER MINOR was born July 5, 1825, near Perryville, Boyle county, Kentucky. His parents, William and Mary Rains Minor, were among the first settlers in the county, and were devout and modest people. Brother Minor made a profession of faith in Christ in his sixteenth year, and united with the Methodist Church at old Pleasant Run, which is now in the Lebanon Circuit, in the bounds of the Louisville Conference. When he was eighteen years old he was licensed to preach, and for three years labored as a local preacher in his home community.

On September 1, 1845, he was married to Miss Martha Taylor, daughter of Banister and Elizabeth Taylor, of Marion county. In 1846 the Kentucky Conference met in Covington, and James C. Minor was admitted on trial, and sent to Paris and Cynthiana, where he remained one year; then to Germantown and Minerva one year; Somerset one year; Hustonville and Crab Orchard one year; Madison Circuit one year; Popular Plains, in Fleming county, two years; Owingsville two years; Flemingsburg two years; Bloomfield two years; Simpsonville two years; and Taylorsville two years.

At the close of his second year at Taylorsville Brother Minor located, on the account of bad health, and lived on a farm near Simpsonville for three years. But in 1866 he was re-admitted into the Conference, and sent back to Taylorsville, where he stayed two years. Then he was sent to New Castle, where he stayed three years; Christiansburg four years; Richmond one year; Bedford three years; Carrollton one year; Augusta two years, and Foster one year.

At the Conference in 1884, on account of bad health, he was superannuated, having suffered a partial stroke of paralysis two years before, from which he never recovered. He then made his home on a farm near California, Ky., where he lived until his death. While Brother Minor was not looked upon as a wealthy man, yet he had enough of this world's goods to supply all of his wants; consequently he never received anything from the Conference Board, but willingly waived his claim in favor of those who needed it more than he did.

Brother and Sister Minor had one child born to them, John Wesley Minor, who was a bright and scholarly young man. He had just taken up the practice of medicine in Simpsonville, Ky., when he was brought low by death in his twenty-sixth year.

James C. Minor was a man of strong native ability, and preached the doctrines of his church with force and brotherly love. During the polemic days of the church in the State he came to the defense of Methodism with no "uncertain sound," and yet it was done in such a way that even his opposers remained his friends. By nature he was a sweet spirited man, but sickness and nervousness, during the last twenty-five years of his life, made him seem irritable at times, but back of it all there was the spirit of a true Knight of the Cross.

On May 16, 1909, he reached the end of his earthly pilgrimage, and his sun went down in the peace of God he loved and served. His funeral service was conducted on the 18th in the Cemetery Chapel, at Shelbyville, by Revs. J. M. Johnson and H. G. Turner, and as the soft breeze sang a requiem through the trees his body was laid to rest by that of his son to wait the resurrection of the just. He fought a good fight, and finished the course set before him, and we may say with John Wesley at the death of Whitefield:

Servant of God, well done!
 Thy glorious warfare's past;
 The battle's fought, the race is won,
 And thou are crowned at last;
 Of all thy heart's desire
 Triumphantlly possessed;
 Lodged by the ministerial choir
 In thy Redeemer's breast.

CHARLES HENRY PRATHER.

REV. FRANCIS MARION HILL.

Frances Marion Hill was born near Cornishville, Washington county, Kentucky, July 28, 1865, and together with his second wife, was drowned September 29, 1908. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, and one of eleven children.

With the exception of one year in Lincoln county, his youth was spent in Washington, and Nelson counties. Being poor, his parents not able to give him many advantages in childhood. There was nothing out of the ordinary except his devotion to parents and his wonderful eagerness for knowledge which was manifested in his striking power of observation of men and events, which remained in childlike keenness, though reinforced by the maturity of manhood.

He was converted and joined the church in a revival held at Chaplin about twenty-five years since, by Rev. W. B. Godbey. He at once felt his call to the ministry and immediately began his preparation by attending the schools and later Ashbury College from which he graduated. It was necessary for him to pay his own way at College, which he did by laboring during vacations. Having wonderful will power and the capacity to learn, he passed through college with credit. It was his habit to master anything he undertook whether books or circumstances.

He was married in early manhood to Miss Effie Godbey, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Godbey, of Perryville, Ky., to which union were born five children, of whom two sleep with their parents and three are orphans. Two of these are with their grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Godbey, and one with its uncle, John L. Hill.

He was married the second time to Miss Margaret Mary Belwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Belwood, of Croppers, Ky. This union, which seemed to be a very happy one, was terminated so sadly just four days after their marriage, which took place in Louisville, September 25, 1908.

Bro. Hill joined the Kentucky Conference in 1893, and if I have correct information, served as follows, viz: Salt River, one year; Lancaster, two years; Somerset, four years; Carlisle, four years; Richmond, two years; Conference Missionary Secretary two years; and had received the appointment for the third year. He gave eminent satisfaction in all these. I have been informed that he was offered one thousand dollars per year if he would return to the Salt River charge. It usually pays less than four hundred dollars. At Carlisle he built a beautiful and modern church which will stand as a monument to his pastorate there.

During the year 1899, while serving Somerset, he, together with his father-in-law, Rev. W. B. Godbey, made a trip to Palestine, going through the usual countries of the old world in his journey. From that trip we have his book, "To Palestine and Back With the Children."

During his pastorate at Richmond, his first wife died, a shock from which he had scarcely recovered at the time of his death.

He was a preacher of ability. His sermons were well thought out and delivered in a very convincing manner. He was a pastor of great fidelity. He kept the vow to "visit from house to house." Many will be the homes that will remember the admonitions in temptation and the words of comfort in time of sorrow that came from the lips of this faithful pastor.

Bro. Hill was a man, I think I may say, of extraordinary business capacity, having accumulated a considerable estate. He was a devoted son. Last summer his mother was very ill near here, and I have never seen a son show such marked kindness to a parent. For two weeks he scarcely undressed, but day and night he was at her bedside, to see that every want was supplied and that every desire was gratified. He was a loving father. His children seemed constantly in his thought. He often spoke to me of the trial of being separated from them so much. The last night he spent on earth, at family devotions in his father's house, he prayed most fervently that his children might always have the society of Christian people. The Spirit, indeed, seemed to inspire the prayer. As a friend he was of the truest. It was my privilege to number him among my best friends of the ministry. I shall not forget the heart to heart talks I enjoyed with him during the past year. What a shock his sudden going away was to me! I felt more like being numbered among the mourners than officiating at the funeral.

The funeral of himself and wife was preached by the writer, near Chaplin, from I Cor. 15:53: "For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality." Bro. Britt assisted in the services. We took his body to Perryville, where a beautiful memorial service was held in which Dr. Pearce and Reverends Lon Robinson, C. A. Tague, R. B. Baird, J. J. Dickey and the writer took part. We laid his body beside that of his first wife and two deceased children, to await the resurrection of the just. Rest, servant of God, your works do follow you. Good-bye, Frank, till the Eternal morning.

MRS. FRANCES MARION HILL.

Mrs. F. M. Hill, nee Margaret Belwood, was born November 17, 1885, and met death by drowning, with her husband, in Chaplin river, September 28, 1908. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Belwood, of Croppers, Ky. She was one of four children. She was married September 25, 1908, to Rev. F. M. Hill, of the Kentucky Conference, at the Galt House, in Louisville. About eighteen months since she met Brother Hill who was holding a missionary meeting in the Methodist Church at Croppers, of which she was a member, having joined the church under the ministry of Rev. O. J. Chandler, at the age of thirteen years. Brother Hill was impressed with the appearance of Miss Belwood upon sight and sought her acquaintance at once. This acquaintanceship ripened into love, from which their marriage resulted. She was a woman of kindly disposition, beautiful personage, and splendid intellect. The writer is informed that she was a dutiful and obedient child and a loving and trustful daughter, always confiding all things to her mother. Brother Hill had three living children that were born to his first wife. She was to assume the part of a mother to these children, and she spoke of it rather as a privilege, than a duty. She came with Bro. Hill to Chaplin to visit his parents and they were to go the next day to Perryville, where his children were. She expressed herself as anxious to meet them and form the acquaintance of those whose motherhood she had assumed. Brave, indeed, to enter into the ranks as the wife of an itinerant minister and to take upon herself with the marriage vow, the care of three orphan children, the oldest of whom was thirteen years of age. She had anticipated a long and happy life with him for whom she had forsaken father and mother, brother and sister. But, alas! "Man proposes, God disposes." "Who can know the mind of the Lord." We look upon these, full expectations and from whom we expected much in the full strength of manhood and womanhood, go down to sudden death and we can but believe "He destroyeth the perfect," as well as "and the wicked." Well may we say, "His ways are past finding out." But where knowledge ends, faith begins. Our faith can not serve us for any purpose, until our knowledge ends. We may not know why but faith shall serve us until we "know even as we are known," until "faith ends in sight." The writer assisted by Bro. Britt, preached her funeral, together with her husband's, as the caskets side by side told the story of the awful tragedy that had ended their lives, from 1 Cor. 15:53, 'For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.' The writer accompanied her corpse to Bloomfield from which place it was shipped to Croppers for burial. A memorial service was held at that place, in which Rev. E. C. Savage used the same text as the writer had used here, and Rev. H. C. Wright read the fourteenth chapter of St. John. Rev. Alexander led in prayer. A large number accompanied her remains to Pleasureville cemetery, where she was laid to await the call of God that shall reunite all the separated. May heaven's blessings be upon the many hearts that mourn.

P. C. EVERSOLE.

REV. E. C. SAVAGE.

(By Rev. W. E. Arnold.)

In the death of Rev. E. C. Savage the Kentucky Conference has lost one of its truest and best men. Few among us rivaled him in piety, in goodness, in devotion to duty, and in efficiency in the Master's service.

Eljah Currens Savage was the son of James C. and Sarah Savage, and was born near Germantown, Mason county, Ky., July 20, 1859. He was of good Methodist stock. His grandfather, an uncle, several cousins of his father, two brothers (Revs. F. A. and J. R. Savage, now of the Kentucky Conference), and two nephews have honored the ministry of the Methodist Church. His father was for many years a steward and Sunday school superintendent, and his life and labors have made a lasting contribution to Methodism in the community in which he lived. His home was a Christian home, and the subject of this sketch was brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. As a consequence he was converted in early childhood and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He grew in piety as he grew in years, and one of the most frequent remarks we have heard from the lips of those who knew him has been: "Brother Savage was such a good man." For many years he was a modest and consistent professor of the experience of entire sanctification, and his life gave weight to his testimony and illustrated the doctrine as he preached it.

Brother Savage was licensed to preach when quite a young man. In 1883, just after he had graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan College, he was admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference and sent to Pine Knot Mission. This was a difficult charge, mostly in the mountains; but he served it faithfully and well. Then followed two successful years at Lawrenceburg, two at Mt. Hope, two at Dover, three at Morefield, three at Hillsboro, four at Wilmore, four on the Kelat Circuit, two at Christiansburg, and death found him nearing the close of his second year at Simpsonville.

As a preacher he was sound, spiritual, edifying. He was faithful in dealing with souls. He had courage of the highest order. No man was too big for him to tell him of his faults, yet he did it so gently and so earnestly as to completely disarm the offender and lead him back to Christ. Souls were saved wherever he went, and all the interests of the church faithfully cared for. He was diligent and untiring as a pastor, and seldom failed to report all collections in full and a gracious revival in his charge. Though frail in body and always laboring under great disadvantage, he was one of the most useful men of the church. For a number of years he was Secretary of the Conference Board of Missions, and was an effective pleader with voice and pen for this great cause.

On the night of the 18th of June, Brother Savage was taken suddenly and seriously ill. All that loving hearts could devise and all that skillful hands could perform was done, but his strength failed rapidly. Acute Bright's disease was the sure harbinger of death. He was taken from home to the hospital at Shelbyville, Ky., where he died June 26, 1909, aged forty-nine years, eleven months, and six days. He leaves a wife, to whom he was happily married twenty-three years ago, and a noble son seventeen years of age. Of course he died well. Such living is sure to be followed by happy dying. He gave ample assurance to those about him that God's grace, which had sustained him amid the trials of life, was sufficient for the ordeal of death. So rests one of our most beloved men. Peace to his memory!

MRS. J. S. SIMS.

Miss Mary I. Lovell was born in Concord, Lewis county, Ky., Nov. 11, 1862. Her young life soon found its counterpart in Rev. J. S. Sims, of the Kentucky Conference, and although very young to assume the duties of wife, and especially that of a Methodist Itinerant, they were married in Vanceburg, May 1st, 1878.

When quite young she joined the Methodist Church under the ministry of Rev. D. B. G. Demaree and lived a faithful, consistent Christian life to the end. Her mother was a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the impress of her life and character was visible in the character of the daughter. The mother died when Mrs. Sims was quite young, from the same dreadful disease that ended the earthly career of the daughter. Her father was not at that time, a member of any church, but after his second marriage united with the Presbyterian Church, to which his present wife belongs. The grim monster has visited his home thrice in the last year, carrying away one son and two daughters. Surely his cup has been full.

Sister Sims was not only a devoted wife and mother, discharging faithfully, the duties of each relation, cheerful, bright, loving and loved, but she was a true Christian, a lover of the church and a true helpmeet to her husband. The Woman's Missionary Society, the Epworth League, the Sunday-school found her a willing and efficient worker, while the regular church services always found her in her place.

Few wives of our preachers enjoyed a higher degree of popularity or were more fondly loved by those to whom the husband ministered than she.

"None knew her but to love her,
None named her but to praise."

To a very marked degree she enjoyed the devotion and confidence of her husband, and the child-like affection of her manly son. Surely the "boy" cannot go far wrong with the memory of such a mother. The home was a happy one, for love ruled and cheerfulness brightened.

Bro. Sims was both a father and husband, so tenderly did he shield his wife from everything that could cause pain or heartache, to the utmost limit of his ability, and when he saw her in the last great agony he was grief-stricken, he could not shield her from that.

She died in the hospital at Lexington, Oct. 31, 1908.

The words of affection spoken, the thoughtful care of the dying wife the grief-stricken husband and son, the victory over the last enemy, the heart pangs of those left behind, the last "I love you husband" are too sacred for record here. We loved her at our home as did all the church. Ours is a personal loss, a personal grief.

The remains were taken to Maysville where for a few hours they rested in a bower of beauty, the floral offerings of friends, and where the last sad rites were performed.

Rev. B. F. Chatham read the burial service.

Rev. F. T. McIntyre, of Flemingsburg, led the prayer, the writer preached the sermon. Rev. W. W. Akers, of the Maysville Presbyterian Church, and the father's pastor, made the closing prayer and the clay tenement was laid to rest in the Maysville cemetery to await His coming. The appropriate hymns were beautifully rendered by a Maysville quartette.

"Life's duty done as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies;
While heaven and earth combine to say,
How blest the righteous when she dies.'

T. F. TALIAFERRO, Frankfort, Ky.

LUCY W. LANCASTER.

Mrs. Lucy W. Lancaster was born in Sciota county, Ohio, July 19, 1818, and died at her home near Cynthiana, Ky., Dec. 16, 1908. She was a daughter of Jonathan and Sophronia Hard, pioneer settlers of the French grant in Sciota county, Ohio, who were natives respectively of Vermont and New Hampshire. From them she inherited traits characteristic of the sturdy, industrious and God-fearing, loving and serving New England ancestry of the past. Her school girlhood was spent mainly in Cincinnati. While attending school there she professed conversion in the great revival held by Rev. John Newland Maffitt, under whose ministry about 500 were converted. She, however, chose to wait until the excitement of the meeting had passed before joining the church, but a call upon her from Dr. Leonidas Hamline, afterwards Bishop, influenced her to apply for membership on probation soon after the close of the meeting. From thence until her death, a period of more than seventy years, she was a member of the Methodist church. Perhaps in age and membership, she was the oldest Methodist in Harrison county. May 13, 1845, she was happily married to Rev. Ransom Lancaster, who died in 1893, after more than 50 years spent in the ministry of the Western Virginia and Kentucky Conferences.

With him she bravely met all the hardships and vicissitudes of the itinerant ministry during those years, especially during the ten years following the organization of the Western Virginia Conference, M. E. Church, South, when the "allowance" was barely sufficient for a preacher's family to exist on and the moves frequent and long.

To them were born five children, four surviving: Wesley A., Edgar B., Mrs. Ada V. Garnett and Miss Ella Lancaster, of Cynthiana, Ky.

Her last illness was of frequent great suffering and of several months duration, but she bore it all with becoming Christian fortitude. Faith in a risen Savior sustained her. She was ready. No fear or doubts to trouble and make the crossing over the dark river dreaded. The end came calmly, peacefully and free from pain, apparently.

After services conducted by Revs. W. A. Penn, B. F. Cosby and A. T. O'Rear in the church at Oddville, where she had for so many years held her membership, her remains were interred in the family lot in the cemetery there. Thus closed a long and useful life devoted to home and family, with no duty or service neglected, so long as strength would permit.

Report of Committees.

REPORT OF PARSONAGE COMMITTEE.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

Your Committee on Parsonage Furnishing submits the following report: Circular letters were sent to all the pastors and congregations in the Conference embodying the suggestions of the committee. Also letters to the Presiding Elders and Woman's Home Mission Societies asking their co-operation. These letters were published in Central Methodist Advocate. We again urge that these recommendations be adopted by all the charges in order to secure uniform action throughout the Conference.

We further recommend that all preachers moving to charges, having parsonages, urge that the kitchen furniture and heating stoves be put in at once. We have published in Central Methodist Advocate a similar request to all the charges. We recommend this as the first step toward complete furnishing of all the parsonages.

The following is a summary of the present condition in the Conference: Covington District has 12 parsonages in 17 pastoral charges; 2 have been furnished (Covington and Alexandra); 5 partly furnished, leaving five with no furniture.

Danville District—

Parsonages, 19; charges, 24; furnished, none; partly furnished 8; nothing done, 11.

Frankfort District—

Parsonages, 12; charges, 21; one almost furnished; partly furnished, 6; nothing done, 6.

Lexington District—

Parsonages, 14; charges 24; furnished, none; partly furnished 8; nothing done, 6.

Maysville District—

Parsonages, 16; charges, 18 (Maysville ready to furnish); furnished none; partly furnished, 4; nothing done, 12.

Shelbyville District—

Parsonages, 15; charges, 16; furnished, none; partly furnished, 6; nothing done, 9.

A number of the charges have funds on hand, and others are accumulating funds with which to furnish when there is a change of pastors.

We are sure that the work of the committee has already accomplished much in arousing interest, and we confidently expect all, or nearly all, of our parsonages to be furnished within the quadrennium. We wish to express our appreciation of the hearty co-operation of the conference officers of the Woman's Home Mission Society.

We offer the following resolution:

I. That the Parsonage Committee shall co-operate with the Woman's Home Mission Society of the Conference in getting out a parsonage number of the Central Methodist Advocate through the courtesy of its editors.

II. That the Presiding Elders be requested to fill vacancies in the Parsonage Committee where a vacancy is caused by the removal of a preacher from the district, who is a member of the committee.

III. That we recommend the election of the following committee for the ensuing year:

Covington—J. R. Savage, M. L. Sweatman.

Danville—P. J. Ross, B. J. Durham.

Frankfort—T. W. Watts, T. J. Jenkins.

Lexington—E. G. B. Mann, A. Combs.

Shelbyville—H. G. Turner, J. T. Morgan.

Maysville—J. W. Gardiner, J. W. Boulden.

Respectfully submitted,

J. R. SAVAGE, Chairman.

T. W. WATTS, Secretary.

REPORT OF LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT, KENTUCKY ANNUAL CONFERENCE SEPTEMBER 27, 1909.

There has been during the past year an encouraging growth of this movement within our Conference.

Our Conference Leader and Vice Leader (together with some district leaders), have given much of their time and energy, visiting at their own expense the district conferences, and holding meetings in the interest of the movement in other places.

They report all districts organized under district leaders who have done efficient work in their respective districts.

The great need is for a capable leader in each congregation, who shall present the work to the church membership by the aid of the pastor. The laymen present at this 89th session of the Kentucky Conference, after earnest and prayerful consideration have outlined an aggressive missionary campaign for the coming year. They call on the pastors and presiding elders for their co-operation and direction.

It was decided to make our goal for the coming year an average of $2.00 per member for missions. To this end we have re-elected as Conference Leader Dr. C. B. VanArsdall, of Harrodsburg, and Bro. W. S. Hays, of LaGrange, as our Vice Leader. We have also elected twenty delegates and twenty alternates to represent our Kentucky Conference at the Conference of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, M. E. Church, South, Dallas, Texas, February 22-24, 1910.

Respectfully submitted by the Secretary,

RAWLINS D. BEST.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORPHAN'S HOME.

To the Bishop and members of the Annual Conference assembled in Paris, Ky., Sept. 22, 1909:

Dear Brethren:—Your Committee on "Orphans' Home" respectfully submit the following report:

We note with much pleasure that the affairs of the home are in good order and have moved along more smoothly the past year than for some years previous, no grievous incidents have occurred.

We most heartily endorse the action of the Board of Directors in their efforts to build the Steam Laundry at a cost of $4,000.

The pastors of this conference are respectfully requested to invite the efficient and modest agent, E. S. Boswell, to occupy their pulpits in representing the Orphans' Home.

We endorse the action of the Board of Directors in the election of E. S. Boswell, Esq., as agent of the Home and Miss L. Y. Nadal as matron, for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,

T. B. COOK, Chairman.

J. W. SIMPSON, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, the Committee on District Conference Records, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have examined the records of all the districts.

The record of the Shelbyville District has not been signed by either the chairman or the secretary of the Conference.

The record of the Maysville District has been signed by only the secretary.

The record of the Lexington District states that a motion was made "to extend the time for preaching in order to finish the reports."

It should have been to postpone "the time for preaching," or "to extend the time for the business session," etc.

It also states that the Camargo and Grassy Lick charge had recently procured property for a parsonage in Winchester, when, in fact, it is in Mt. Sterling.

The record of the Danville District evidenced considerable carelessness on the part of the secretary in his spelling, etc., as the following will show:

"D." instead of Dr. was used as the abbreviation for doctor; "n" was omitted in spelling answer; the last syllable was omitted in Covington; said was spelled "seaid;" "of" was omitted in "license of latter;"

"y" was omitted in the spelling of layman and laymen in several places, the quotation marks were omitted where they should have been used in quoting from the address of W. S. Hayes.

With these exceptions the records were well kept.

Respectfully submitted,

M. S. CLARK, Chairman.

R. M. LEE, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE REPORT.

We, your Committee on Temperance, beg leave to submit the following report:

We recognize the legalized liquor traffic as one of the greatest enemies to our homes, the church of God and our holy Christianity.

We would note with profound gratitude to God the great progress the church has made in the last few years by not only holding in check, this our most uncompromising enemy but that we have, by organized and persistent effort, driven it entirely from some of our states and from most of our beloved Kentucky.

But recognizing the fact that we are circumscribing the sale and reducing the consumption of intoxicating liquor, we are now face to face with the most dangerous and important part of this conflict.

We would call the attention of our people to the insidious and undermining work of the liquor interest in their determined effort to nominate and elect men as senators and representatives who are not openly opposed to local option, but who secretly are committed to the saloon interest.

Therefore, be it resolved:

1. That we will not cease to agitate and educate our people on this question till the iniquitous business shall be driven from our land.

2. That we recognize the Anti-Saloon League as the most efficient agent through which we may hope to gain results, and in lieu of this, to show our faith by our work.

3. We believe the time is ripe for state-wide prohibition, and would recommend to our people such independence from party rule, as to vote for men for the Legislature, who will give us the privilege of a vote on a constitutional amendment to this effect.

4. We would recommend that our people use the unfermented grape juice for sacramental purposes.

5. Recognizing that effective prohibition is practically impossible so long as the National Government refuses to co-operate with state law, we hereby express our earnest desire that Congress shall pass, at its next session, a stringent law forbidding the shipment of liquor into any state or section of state where local option laws forbid its sale.

6. Again we would unqualifiedly register our unalterable objection to the use of tobacco by our preachers and feel that it is an unwholesome example for the young and a very strong barrier to their best influence in the homes of the mothers who give their best efforts to furnish the church boys untarnished. We are certainly behind the stand our sister, the M. E. Church has taken on this question and we believe what the text books in our public schools teach.

Respectfully submitted,

W. F. WYATT, Chairman.

W. L. CLARK, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT AND SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE REPRESENTATION.

Your Committee, after having given careful consideration to the matter referred to them recommend: That membership in the District Conference shall consist of the traveling and local preachers of the District and delegates from every Church within the District to be elected by the Church Conference on the basis of one delegate for every one hundred members or fraction thereof in excess of 50 per cent., provided that no church shall be without one delegate.

That membership in the Sunday School Conference shall consist of the traveling and local preachers of the District, together with the Sunday School Superintendents and delegates from every Sunday School of the District to be elected by the Sunday School on the basis of one delegate for every one hundred members or fraction thereof in excess of 50 per cent., provided that no Sunday School shall be without one delegate.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN L. WEBER,
J. J. DICKEY,
C. J. NUGENT.

REPORT ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Paris, Ky., Sept. 23, 1909.

Mr. President:

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals begs to submit the following report:

We note with pleasure the high standard maintained by the Quarterly Review, and commend it to our pastors and people generally. The articles are of a high order and deserve a permanent place in our libraries, while the Book Reviews are time savers, labor savers and money savers.

The Christian Advocate grows better day by day, being fearless in its editorial policy, it has been a power in the fight for Prohibition in the South. We urge that our pastors procure a list of those already subscribers in their respective churches and enter upon a vigorous campaign to extend its circulation. We are gratified to note material improvement in our Conference Organ, The Central Methodist Advocate, and congratulate the management upon the elimination of objectionable advertising. As business men we realize the loss in revenue this entails, but we feel our people will rally to its support as never before.

Go Forward, The Epworth Era and other periodicals admirably fill their places.

Our Sunday School literature is second to none, and we trust will soon take the place of all other so-called Helps to the study of God's Word in our Sunday School, but we feel a growing need of still more advanced studies with fuller notes and with references to current works on research in Oriental Lands rather than to antiquated Encyclopedias.

The Committee had before it the Annual report of our publishing house. This shows a year of increased prosperity. We believe the works issued by or sold through our Book Agents will meet most of the demands for literature, and recommend that they be given the preference over all others.

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. O'REAR, Chairman,

G. N. HOBBS, Secretary.

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We, your Committee on Sabbath Observance, recognize the Religious Argument proclaiming the Divine origin and authority of the Lord's Day and accept its heavenly birth and sanctions as declared by Holy men and afterward by our Saviour, as its Rock foundation.

Our Creator weighed human life in a balance and accurately adjusted it to its environments, and among other things gave to man one day in seven for Rest and Worship; and to take from that time, or to add to it, even a few hours, disarranges the Divine plan and declares war on God, and the trespasser must inevitably suffer in body, mind and spirit.

Our Sabbath is becoming a day of self-gratification, of Sunday visiting, of feasts and social functions, of pastimes and popular amusements as well as also a day affording opportunity for satisfying the grasping and grinding spirit of Avarice.

The Lethargy of the church toward the desecration of our Holy Sabbath has been the amusement of devils and infidels, the wonder of good men and angels, and a grief to Almighty God. If the Sabbath is lost the citadel of the church is captured, and the enemy holds carnival over her ruins.

It is assuredly the duty of the church to preserve this day of rest. The pulpit and the press are the prime factors in this great struggle. Christian men and women everywhere must contend for this divine institution or it will be lost.

Therefore be it resolved,

1. That we heartily endorse the object and purpose of the Sunday League of America to preserve a quiet, thoughtful Sunday all over the United States, and to introduce it into all other lands.

2. That we will teach our people from the pulpit and by circulating literature, seeking to educate sentiment and conscience against the profaning the Day of Our Lord, either by doing ordinary work therein, or by buying or selling and to reduce Sunday toil to the minimum of necessity and mercy; and to drive out feasting, visiting, excursions, base ball and all such Sabbath desecrations, and make Sunday a day of general rest, quiet and thought.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. MATHEWS, Ch'n,

WM. J. MORPHIS, Sec.,

C. H. GREER,

W. F. VAUGHAN.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SPIRITUAL STATE OF CHURCH
ANNUAL CONFERENCE, PARIS, KY., SEPT. 24, 1909.

To the thoughtful observer, either clerical or lay, the progress of our methodism is very unsatisfactory, whether comparison is made with the growth of other days or with some other Church organizations. This obvious fact is a matter of regret of anxious inquiry and of general heart searching among us. That we are no worse than some of our sister denominations, abates not by one jot the measure of our disappointment and humiliation. It is certainly true that our numerical growth is out of proportion to our investments of men, of money and educational appliances.

Never in our history have our preachers been so numerous or well equipped intellectually and socially. Never have we offered Church buildings, so attractive, nor have they been occupied by congregations so large and devout, never was the Gospel proclaimed with more faithful and accurate exposition or more persuasive art. And yet the faithful pastor faces the apparent failure of his ministry in saving souls—and he weeps and prays and wonders at the seeming futility of his toil.

The question arises in the midst of his alarms, are we bordering on the period when there shall be "a great falling away from Christ?" Or have we as a Church lost touch with the Christ who is the Life Giver? Or is it possible that in our jealousy for Christ's honor, we have become so impatient of His delays and methods, that our very faith itself is being put to the proof?

Our solicitude is well, but we need to move softly and speak in undertones when investigating questions so serious and sacred, nor should we penetrate this cloud of mystery without the Holy Ghost as our guide and the Lord Jesus as our surety.

I. Let us carefully examine the state of the Church. It is really not in the distressed state we think.

1. In the first place the Church has been in the midst of a revival for more than twenty years (if not of soul saving as we generally speak, yet), a revival, in the long run, equally important. It has been an Ethical Revival, one of Truth and Honesty in all the transactions and relations of life, one of sobriety, of brotherly kindness, liberality of education, of reverence for God and man, of a firmer and truer sense of social obligations, or more tersely expressed of a faith that sees not only things invisible but the befogged and misunderstood nature of things all about us.

Probably never in the Church's history have the intellectual and moral standard been so high nor so numerously attained and it is in the realization of this larger life that it has become possible for the solicitudes of this hour.

This ethical growth furnishes the Church for its subsequent evangelistic work. It is the very proof of the supernatural in our life and ministry, and to the great majority of men and women, the only proof, which leads them to God. It is the minor premise in the argument which in the hands of the Holy Spirit convicts men of sin, righteousness and judgment to come.

This Ethical enlargement furnishes the Church itself for a closer walk with God and consequently a greater volume of force for evangelistic work. This work of preparation is as important to this era as the 2,000 years of preparation which preceded the coming of Christ.

II. There have been results in soul saving possibly beyond our faith if not beyond our perceptions.

1. Of course there have been disappointments—sometimes in the number and brilliancy of conversions—sometimes in failure to reach objects of peculiar solicitude. But did not Isaiah cry in bitterness of soul "Who hath believed our report and to whom is arm of the Lord revealed." And did not our Lord say, "We have piped unto you and ye have not danced, we have mourned unto you and ye have not lamented?" It has been always so and will always be, so long as man's will is as free as his Master's and just as sovereign in shaping his own destiny.

2. But there are multiplied thousands of children now brought into vital touch with Christ before arriving at personal accountability. Through agency of godly teachers, consecrated parents and faithful pastors an army greater than any earthly general ever commanded is annually mustered for Christ, who one hundred years ago, would have been allowed to grow up in sin and if reclaimed were so only at Altars of Penitence.

3. The wide diffusion of Bible and general prevalence of education, and the consequent greater mental discipline and self-control have greatly changed the forms of expression for the inner religious life just as they have softened the speech and manners of the people.

The shrieks and sobs and cataleptic gyrations with which conversions were attended in the past have largely disappeared. Men and women come more frequently into the Kingdom with pallor and trembling only. Thousands daily die to the world and become alive unto God, whose confessions of a new relation and purpose are made only by a purer life.

III. 1. But with all the comfort these reflections bring, there is still less fruit than ought to be and would be if every preacher and Church member stood in privileged relation to Christ and less than we may rightfully expect from preaching of a pure Gospel. And we do right to pray, to seek and work for, and to expect great things from God. But neither all the Church members, nor all the ministers are trumpets of certain sound. Both are going through a season of refinement as silver is tried in the fire.

The Church itself needs reviving. Some "have lost their first love." Some love pleasure more than God and some have a name to live but are dead in trespasses and sins.

The intense physical and mental activity of the generation furnishes a justifiable plea for relaxation and recreative exercises on the Sabbath. If their faith was more truly in God they would seek these in works of devotion and mercy and in spiritual culture instead of the Sunday excursions and base ball—in the promiscuous and salacious dance and in theatrical amusements, or in the hilarities, the frivolities or convivial cups of the so-called fashionable society.

Probably the Church encounters no greater difficulty in winning souls for Christ than that which grows out of her inconsistencies. The injustice which the poor suffer from the rich, the weak at the hands of the strong, the ignorant at the hands of the crafty and better informed instead of leading them to self-culture too frequently turn them to crimes of falsehood, violence and robbery, not in the grosser forms perhaps, but in the more elusive ones and yet quite obvious to the world.

The commercial spirit now sweeping over the age like a tidal wave which makes financial success the one respectable and enviable possession—which makes money-pageantry an adequate price for immoralities has been a heavy strain upon the Church. The delinquencies of Church leaders at this point—leaders who employ unconverted men and women and whose influence indites the laws which oppress them—muffles the denunciation or averts the penalties of courts where the sufferers have sought relief—whose immense resources shape social customs to the humiliation of the poor, instead of attracting men to their Lord repel them from His sanctuary.

The political and social enfranchisement of millions of untaught and badly balanced men have suddenly thrown them into new relations, and bewildered and overwhelmed they have ignorantly gone into sin and folly of one kind and another.

And yet it is doubtful if more than the traditional proportion of the Church have proven false to Christ.

2. In all communities, however small are some who ought to be converted, and in the manufacturing, mining and thickly settled agricultural sections and especially in our large cities are great masses of unsaved people, on whom all the batteries of Christianity have been turned without avail.

It is for these mostly the ministry and church agonize. These people do not attend Church; they have no reverence for the house—nor for the people who frequent it. If they go there at all it is in triple armor of steel and all Gospel shafts rattle against but never penetrate it. Finally we have had a trial peculiar almost to our age and land in shape of the modern evangelist, an evangelist not called of God, but of Mammon—who seeks for applause in cunningly devised newspaper puffs—who must have fame to get money—who count converts by signatures to cards—by uplifted hands—and whose arts for securing them are subtle indeed; whose work begins and ends with the emotions—and it matters little with which one of the emotions—and disappears, and consequently falls as lightly and rises as swiftly as the snow.

They have denounced and minimised the pastor; degraded and destroyed reverence for the ministry and put into contempt all pretensions for the supernatural in religion.

Thus they have blocked the way of the faithful pastor to a large portion of the people, until the pangs of poverty and disease or throes of death reopen the way to their conscience.

IV. The supreme need for the betterment, for the quickening and edifying of the Church and for the Salvation of the lost, is a ministry in right relations with God.

It must be a converted ministry, or one that knows God, not simply by hearsay as from a literary or even theological familiarity with His attributes or with the Bible which discusses them, but from a heart experience of His mercy and love. His truthfulness in keeping His promises and His universal nearness for help in every time of need.

But more than this initial experience is needed for an effective ministry. It must have faith in God, not simply the confidence which trusts but the eye and sensibility which realizes the infinite value of invisible things in this material world and age as really as in "the world to come." Besides this supernatural vision a world conquering faith which empowers the ministry, has lost the individual will in that of God, has melted the heart into a passionate love for God and man.

Armed with such an experience and such a faith the man of God is qualified for battle or toil, and is qualified for every good word and work.

This experience, vision and life is what we understand by power from on high. In its last analysis power means courage—the courage to speak the truth, the whole truth of God, the truth as it is in Jesus and that speaks this truth, not in pride or scorn, but in love, and speaks it not in the authority of an intellectual or normal superiority, but with the authority which is conceded to human love, and with the authority which God proclaims his law, and presents His Son and claims our confidence and love.

Your Committee would suggest that as a Conference we stand solidly and firmly together in condemnation of the popular diversions herein enumerated, which are sapping the spirituality of the Church and destroying its religious influence.

Furthermore we suggest that a day of fasting and prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit be observed, and that Friday, November 5th, be set apart for this purpose.

We also suggest that during the month of November special services be held by every pastor, he either conducting them himself or with the assistance of a fellow pastor or the evangelists selected by the Conference Board of Missions.

And finally that during present Conference year special prayer be made by the churches, and special exhortations be constantly given by the pastor for the conversion of souls.

Reports of Boards.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday School Board respectfully report that we have received the annual report of the Sunday School Editor, from which we take the following items: The number of schools in 1908 was 15,410, an increase of 455; number of officers and teachers, 116,764, an increase of 3,110; number of pupils, 1,204,683, an increase of 77,324. In each item there is a far greater increase than in the year before. There was a net gain of 90,605 in the circulation of Sunday School periodicals. We are glad to note the success of the new venture among the periodicals called Boys and Girls, the circulation of which is 35,000.

We hail the coming of the Home Department quarterly, because it promises greatly to increase the study of the Bible in the homes of our people, and will no doubt contribute much towards a better study of the lessons by the children of the Church. The Adult Student gained 10,000 during the year and now numbers 30,000.

The Editor promises to make improvements in several directions and to secure the services of several of "the most distinguished specialists in America." We commend the use of the graded lesson courses prepared for Sunday Schools, which must give cumulative effect to the instruction received and result in more intelligent progress in the knowledge of the Scriptures.

The sales of the Sunday School periodicals have amounted to $240,895.56, an increase of $15,077.55. The Conference minutes show that the Children's Day offerings were $23,062.57, and the contributions to the Chair of Religious Pedagogy amounted to only $4,765.42. Your Board will make a persistent effort to have Children's Day observed in every church in the Conference, for the advancement of this fund and for its educative effect upon the children.

We have just sent $95.74 to the endowment of Vanderbilt School of Pedagogy. We urge all our pastors and superintendents to put into the schools, wherever it is possible, the Teacher Training Courses prepared by Dr. Hamill. The vast need of this course of study and the diligent use of it must be felt by every one who has observed our Sunday School work. We cannot too earnestly urge it upon our pastors and superintendents to give immediate and serious attention to that subject.

Respectfully submitted,

F. T. MCINTYRE, Chairman,

C. J. NUGENT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The work and responsibilities of your Board of Education have been greatly increased the present year by the change in the administration of the College.

The retiring President goes to his new and important position with the good will and sincere interest of the Board of Education following him.

The Board after careful and wide correspondence with many eminent educators congratulates itself and counts the college and the Conference fortunate in securing the services of Jno. J. Tigert as President of the College. His training has not only been of the best, but in personal traits and qualifications he is proving himself a providential man.

Another item for congratulation is the fact that the efficient faculty of last year has been retained without change.

The College has made a gratifying opening for the present school year. The enrollment to September 21st, was 134. Students from a distance, 51; ministerial students, 13; number in senior class, 24. Attention is called to the plain and definite statements made in the college catalogue touching the place and importance of religious experience and life in educational development of the student.

Also the arrangements already consummated for revival services in the college under the leadership of one eminently successful in such work.

The Board has found the operation of Campton Academy increasingly difficult and results unsatisfactory. And since the passage of the recent law making graded schools in such towns as Campton compulsory the sphere of the academy is seriously invaded. The unanimous judgment of the Board was to sell the academy property for graded school purposes. And the sale has been consummated at the price, $3,200, which amount has been added to the endowment fund of the college. The endowment has been further enlarged by an additional bequest from the Thos. L. Clark estate, amounting to several thousand dollars.

The Board appreciates the presence and counsel of Dr. J. D. Hammond, the Secretary of our General Board of Education, who explained in detail the plans and purposes of our General Board.

A resolution was passed endorsing the plans of the General Board, especially in the matter of organizing the "One Hundred Thousand Club" for building up the "Education Extension Foundation" which is not only to raise the $500,000 needed for educational extension, but also becomes through its membership a medium for the distribution of educational literature. Attention is also called to the fact that we have in our General Board an organization and correlation of effort as efficient and comprehensive as that rendered by those Boards working apart from, if not in detriment to denominational, or religious education. We recommend that our pastors make use of the programs furnished gratis by the General Board for use during the week of prayer for education.

The Board has read with great interest the communication from Dr. W. F. Tillett, dean of the Theological Department of Vanderbilt University. We rejoice in the continued growth and enlarging usefulness of this, our greatest institution.

There are now 959 students in the various departments of the university, of this number 115 are ministerial students, over 600 former students of the university are now at work as itinerant preachers in the various conferences and mission fields of the church. We recommend an assessment of $4,000.

The report of the endowment fund of Kentucky Wesleyan College is as follows:

Notes	$58,587.51
Stocks	6,030.00
Cash	2,174.68

Total.....$66,792.19

Increase in endowment.....$5,012.19

We recommend that the assessment for Conference education be set at the same figures as last year, viz. $5,000.00.

The assessment of the general board is $945.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY REPORT.

We your committee on American Bible Society beg to submit the following report:

We recognize the Bible as the revealed will of God, the guide book of life and the sword of the Spirit.

We would therefore recommend that our preachers urge upon our people the necessity of habitually and regularly reading and studying the word of God. But as a man cannot read that which he does not have and as the American Bible Society has been the chief agent of supplying us with the word of God at a phenomenally low price both for home use and foreign lauds; it is with grateful hearts that we note the bequest of the late Bro. Thomas L. Clark of $2,000 to this cause and that our Conference paid to same cause over $600 this year.

We would recommend an amount for this cause of $1,000. But as there has been no little dispute about the action of the society in circulating the American Standard Revised edition and in at least apparently violating their original contract to circulate the King James translation of the Scriptures without note or comment, we would therefore fall in line with the Texas Conference and memorialize the next general conference to take such action as may be thought wise to induce the American Bible Society to correct this mistake.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

It is with a degree of pleasure and good cheer, that we make our report. We begin this year with flattering prospects of success.

Having received, and carefully considered the report of our General Secretary, we gladly join him in his optimistic views of the future for the Epworth League. The growth of the League spiritually, intellectually, socially and numerically is encouraging indeed.

The anniversary held Wednesday evening, September 22, was by far the most enthusiastic meeting we have ever held, and was rendered especially edifying and helpful by the able addresses of Dr. H. M. DuBose and Rev. A. W. Leonard. We trust that the brethren will follow the good suggestions made by each speaker.

We now have all our Districts organized except Maysville and by the help of Rev. Hubert Price, President of Holston Conference Epworth League, we were enabled to complete our Conference organization which was planned at our Epworth League meeting at Winchester, Ky., May 27, 1909. The following names are the officers: T. W. Watts, President; Rawlins Best, Vice President; J. B. Harris, Secretary; Garland Fisher, Treasurer; Miss Anna Daest, of the Junior League; B. M. Nelson, Secretary, Frankfort District; B. C. Horton, Secretary Covington District; J. P. Strother, Secretary Danville District; J. M. Fuqua, Secretary Lexington District; J. W. Simpson, Secretary Shelbyville District; W. L. Clark, Secretary Maysville District.

Resolved, 1st. That we observe the first Sunday in June as Epworth League Day instead of the first Sunday in May. That programmes be secured from the publishing house and some of the collections on that day be used to supply the local league with the Epworth Era, one of the very best papers now sent out by our publishing house for our young people.

Resolved, 2nd, That we as Pastors and Leaguers co-operate with the Conference Epworth League Organization in holding an assembly at High Bridge, beginning the third Tuesday in June.

Resolved, 3rd, That we urge all our pastors to organize leagues where none now exist, and to form Mission Study Classes, and home neighboring league join together in holding Epworth League Rallies and missionary meetings.

Resolved, 4th, That every pastor urge all members of the Church to subscribe for, and read the Epworth Era.

Resolved, 5th, That we have our Epworth League Anniversary on the first night of the Annual Conference.

T. W. BARKER, Chairman.

C. A. GOSSETT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE KENTUCKY ANNUAL CONFERENCE ASSEMBLED AT PARIS, KY., SEPT. 22, 1909.

A review of the report of the General Board of Missions reveals the very gratifying fact that in many respects the past year has been the greatest missionary year in the history of our Church. From every field which we occupy come the most encouraging reports, while at home the whole Church is becoming thrilled and quickened into new life by the missionary spirit and is pouring out her offerings of service and money more lavishly than ever before. In this general revival, of soul-saving abroad and missionary interest at home, our Kentucky Conference is sharing. There is undoubtedly among us a rising tide of intelligent interest, and many proofs could be adduced to show that this is true. Still, it must be confessed that, as compared with many other Conferences, our own Kentucky Conference has been only touched by this revival. When we consider our position and wealth, we ought to be in the van. As a matter of fact, we are following with those that are far in the rear. While some of the other Conferences have gone so far beyond the assessments as almost to forget they ever had any, and twenty Conferences in our Southern Methodism paid out in full last year, our own Conference remains among those that report a shortage on assessments. The very least we can do is to pay what we owe, and your Board of Missions asks your co-operation in securing full payments next year. Let us begin early and work late and rest not till every dollar of our debt is paid.

We would urge that early collection be taken in each charge. Let the collection for Home Missions be taken in November and that for Foreign Missions not later than March 31.

We recommend the appointment of M. S. Clark and E. K. Pike as Conference Missionary Evangelists, and of C. A. Tague as Conference Missionary Secretary to do the office work only.

The Board desires to announce that it has secured the services of a number of our leading pastors for special evangelistic work next year, and any one desiring such service may secure the same by communicating with the Secretary of the Board.

We are glad to have with us Dr. Jno. R. Nelson, Secretary of the Home Department of the General Board of Missions, and Willard G. Cram, our own representative in Korea.

C. F. ONEY, President.

C. A. TAGUE, Secretary.

TOBACCO MEMORIAL.

Fathers and Brethren of General Conference of M. E. Church, South, we as members of the Kentucky Conference M. E. Church, South, respectfully petition your body that a rule be placed in our Book of Discipline, a rule requiring all candidates for the ministry to pledge that they abstain from the use of tobacco in any form.

CHURCH CONTROL OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Whereas, There are indications in certain sections of a disposition to overset control of colleges and school property by the church, where such properties belong to the church, and to substitute therefor control by Boards of Trustees entirely independent of the church, and,

Whereas, The obligation of the church to educate her children, carries with it the obligation to control her institutions of learning, and great good has come to the church and the nation from such control, therefore,

Resolved, That we resent the imputation that control of colleges by the church is or must be narrow and tends to belittle or hamper the development of minds passing through their courses of study,

Resolved, That we do respectfully memorialize the General Conference which will meet in May, 1910, and earnestly urge that body to adopt such measures as will tend to arrest this tendency and to secure titles to all properties of the church intended for schools and colleges in such form that the church shall hold the right to control them,

Resolved, That we protest against publication in our general organ and other papers, that appeal to the patronage of the church, of such articles as reflect on the intelligence of the church and on her ability to control her institutions of learning and by so doing hinder the progress of our educational development,

Resolved, That the gratitude and thanks of the church are due and are hereby tendered to Bishop Hoss, Dr. Du Bose and others for their loyalty to the church and their watchful care of her interest, especially in that chiefly through their courageous efforts Vanderbilt University was not alienated from the control of the church.

C. J. NUGENT,
JOHN C. WEBER,
JNO. R. DEERING.

MEMORIAL LICENSING MINISTERS.

Whereas there is great confusion in the matter of licensing preachers in our church, by having three methods of granting license, therefore resolved, That the Kentucky Conference memorialize the General Conference to establish this authority in the District or Quarterly Conference alone. And the same as to recommendation for admission on trial.

E. G. B. MANN,
JNO. R. DEERING,
J. O. A. VAUGHT,
J. L. CLARK.

RESOLUTIONS ON E. G. B. MANN.

Whereas our esteemed brother. Rev. E. G. B. Mann, D. D., has recently purchased the Central Methodist-Advocate and has assumed editorial charge of its columns,

Be it resolved, 1st, That we assure him of our hearty good will and pledge him our active support in extending the circulation of the paper until it reaches every home in our Conference.

2nd, That we assure him of our hearty appreciation of the editorial policy of the paper in its honest efforts to give all the interests of the Conference without making a hobby of any,

3rd, That we express our pleasure of his high and disinterested action in excluding from the columns of the paper all objectionable advertisements and that we pledge ourselves to an honest effort to make good the loss in revenue thus sustained by securing the subscriptions of all our people who appreciate a clean and spiritual religious family journal.

4th, That we, as the home conference of Dr. Mann, commend him to the Louisville and West Virginia Conference, who join with us in using the Central Methodist-Advocate as a Conference organ, as not only a worthy brother Methodist preacher, but as a conservative and safe editor.

JOHN L. WEBER,
J. M. FUQUA,
H. G. TURNER,
JOHN R. PEEPLES,
C. L. BOHON.

RESOLUTIONS ON DR. WEBER.

Resolved, That it is with sincere regret that we, the members of the Kentucky Conference, learn of the transfer of Dr. J. L. Weber from our Conference to the Memphis Conference. As President of our Conference College for five years his marked ability was shown in a doubling of the endowment and the building of the handsome modern building of which we are so proud, when the old was destroyed by fire.

As pastor in two of our leading appointments he has demonstrated his superior qualifications for pulpit and pastoral work.

In these years we have learned to love as well as admire him and it is with a deep sense of our loss that we bid him Godspeed and heartily commend him to our brethren of the Memphis Conference.

RESOLUTIONS ON DR. WEBER.

We have learned with regret that our esteemed brother and faithful co-worker, Dr. J. L. Weber, has been transferred from the Kentucky Conference to another field.

While with us he did faithful, acceptable and careful work for years, as president of our own school, the Kentucky Wesleyan College.

As preacher and pastor he has filled efficiently and faithfully two of our best and most important stations.

We commend him most heartily and bespeak for him a useful and successful pastorate where his lines are now cast.

Resolved, That this note be spread on our minutes.

J. W. SIMPSON,
W. F. WYATT,
WM. S. MAXWELL.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE SUPPORT OF THE MINISTRY.

Resolved, 1. That a commission of business laymen of the Kentucky Conference be appointed at the present session for the purpose of investigating and reporting to this body on all facts and conditions that may look to increased provision for fiscal support of the ministry.

The increased cost of living in the past ten years of 50 to 100 per cent., yet in a large per centum of our charges there has been no advance in salary and when an advance it is tardily made—not to exceed 10 to 20 per cent., leaving a living deficit of 30 to 40 per cent. for the preacher to provide, are among some of the conditions and facts referred for consideration of said commission.

2. Without dictating the functions of the committee it is respectfully recommended that definite and accurate data be endeavored and secured from each district, not only from ministerial, but lay sources.

After such data has been carefully considered, that the finding of the Commission, and its report, if possible, consider each charge as a unit as to any fiscal advance needful, or possible; also that a per centum of increase be considered for the district in its aggregate, for better standard of ministerial provision.

3. To hearten the Gospel ministry in every practical way is to serve faith in God. To dishearten is to dishonor its Cross. The fact that throughout the Conference connection of American Methodism, Conference Commissions of laymen are now faithfully seeking to serve the purpose of these resolutions, is to also call this body to similar concern for things that vitally pertain to the Kingdom of God.

INTERIOR AUDITORIUM KENTUCKY WESLEYAN COLLEGE.

KENTUCKY WESLEYAN COLLEGE, WINCHESTER, KY.

Kentucky Wesleyan College is making a conscientious effort to offer a real collegiate training under the best Christian influences. We are honestly endeavoring to combine educational efficiency with true religious development. Our Young Men's Christian Association is conceded to be one of the most active in the State of Kentucky and the work of our Bible classes has proved very satisfactory in the past. At least one revival will be held during the year and an earnest effort made to reach unsaved boys and girls in our institution. Our curriculum is as high as that of any college or university in the State. We have a complete faculty of experienced instructors, all of whom have had the best preparation and some experience in teaching and working among young people. Their influence and personal relations with our students count for much. Our institution deserves and expects the support of the Methodists of Kentucky. As long as the college is owned and controlled by the Methodist church, it is dependent upon it for support and can look for little or no support from other quarters. If we do not have the support of the ministers of the church, progress will be slow and almost impossible. Please furnish us with information concerning prospective students and do every thing that lies in your power to further the interests of this most worthy institution of our church.

Catalogues may be secured from JNO. J. TIGERT, President.
or W. H. GARNETT, Dean.

PRESIDENT OF ASBURY COLLEGE.

Friends of Asbury are rejoicing over the fact that the Trustees have been able to secure this earnest, devoted, scholarly man to take the presidency of the College. He has been for some years a force in the educational and reform movements of Ohio, and in 1908, came into national recognition as candidate for Vice President of the United States. He has spoken to the delight and profit of Multitudes in all parts of the country, and is everywhere recognized as one of the ablest of platform orators, and a strong champion of Christian Citizenship and reform. But his powers are all on the Lord's altar, and he has set aside offers much more flattering from a human standpoint to follow what has seemed to him a divine call.

The faculty consists of able, earnest, consecrated men and women "whose hearts the Lord has touched." They are specially trained for their several departments and are able to do the most thorough work.

Expenses are low.

NEW ADMINISTRATION BUILDING TO BE COMPLETED JANUARY, 1910

A REAL Christian College. Intellectual standards high. Spiritual foundations deep. We "seek first the kingdom," but do not neglect genuine culture. Prayers are not made a substitute for hard work. The revival spirit is practically continuous.

Full four years' courses: Classical, Scientific, and Literary. Good, thorough Preparatory Department. Students received in any grade of College or Preparatory Courses, and classes to suit their needs.

Thorough courses in Music, Vocal and Instrumental.

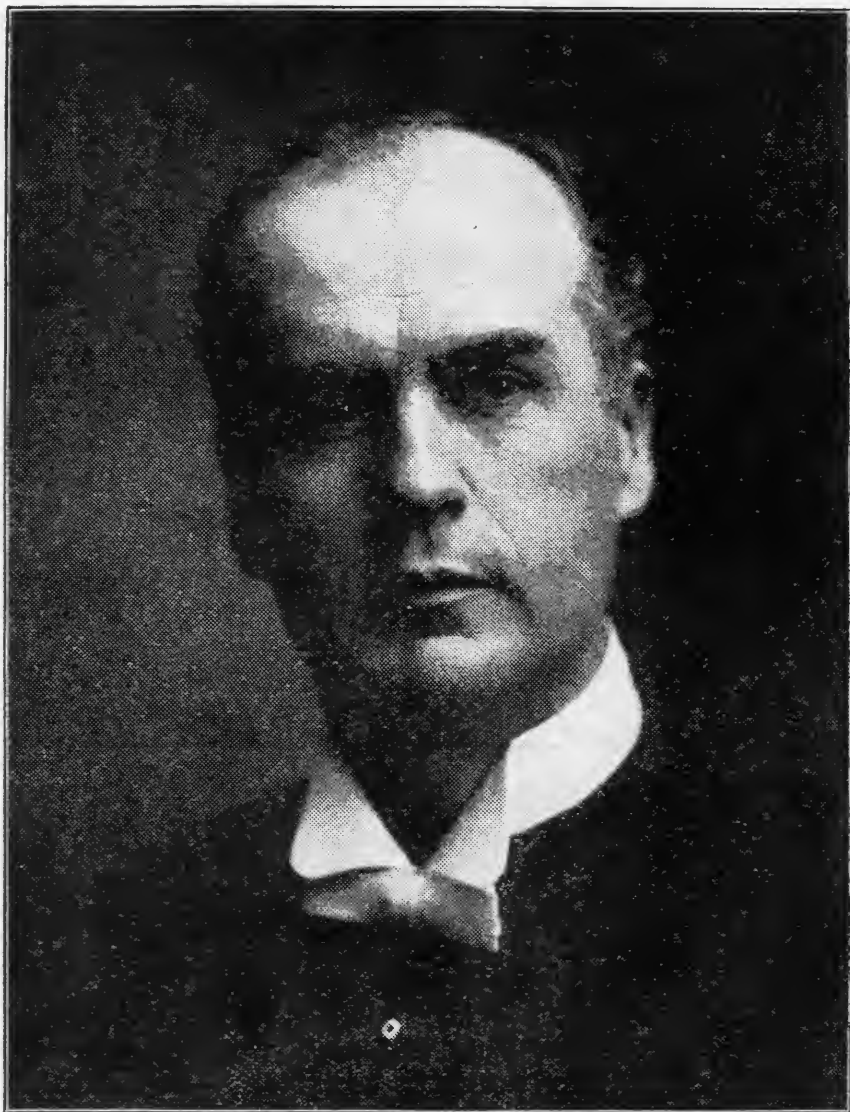

Theology and Preacher training a specialty. The President has charge of classes in Homiletics and Theology. The Boys' Conference a unique feature of our work.

Courses in Book-keeping, Stenography and Typewriting.

All students under a careful, strict, and kindly oversight by President, Matron, and Instructors.

We are located near the center of Kentucky, in the heart of the beautiful Blue Grass section, the water is pure, the surroundings are clean, there are no saloons.
